Please visit our website for our full policy. A parent or guardian must be with each participating child for the entire workshop. Parents are exclusively responsible for their children and all belongings. Refunds will not be given for missed classes or days at the workshop. Payment in full must accompany all registrations. Cancellations after June 1 will receive a refund of $100 if another student can be placed from a waiting list. (Exception: no refunds for the Pre-Twinkle class after June 1.) Students who register after July 1 are not guaranteed participation in a master class. NJ Suzuki Workshop reserves the right to cancel any portion of the workshop due to insufficient enrollment; families affected will be given a minimum of two weeks' notice and refunded if they decide not to attend in that case. Photos will be taken for use in future promotional materials for the workshop. Names will not be associated with photos.

By signing this form, I agree to the terms above.
